WINTER TWENTY ELEVEN

DEPARTMENT

Just Imagine...

*Snow laden trees, wreaths at the windows,
and welcome mats out...*

In 1976 a group of friends took a holiday outing to enjoy dinner together at a small country inn in a quaint little town on the St. Croix River.

The journey to the inn was delightful, everyone recalling childhood memories and family traditions as they passed frosty farmlands, peaceful churches and bright houses.

*Suddenly, as they rounded a bend in the road,
the conversation stopped –
they were amazed at the scene spread out before them.*

A small, turn of the century village, decorated for the holidays, covered in gently new-fallen snow.

Shop windows were warmly lit with holiday offerings, a church bell rang, and smoke curled from chimneys.

Streets were lined with a variety of well-kept homes, each with wreaths in the windows and lights aglow.

At the end of street, carolers sang beneath a holly-covered lamppost.

The idea occurred that night, to recreate the charming little Village and the feelings it inspired, so that it could exist for everyone, everywhere.

The idea became a reality in 1976 when Department 56 introduced the first Snow Houses.

CHRISTMAS IN THE CITY[®] SERIES

THE HUSTLE AND BUSTLE along city sidewalks during the holiday season is just the place for excitement and cheer. Inspired by this imagery, our hand-painted porcelain Christmas In The City[®] Series was introduced in 1987. In honor of lively cities and their diverse architecture, the series offers dozens of places to live, shop, work, dine, and enjoy the arts. Sidewalks fill with shoppers and carolers while sightseers occupy park benches. City lights dazzle the horizon and the buildings outline a spectacular skyline.

NEW ENGLAND VILLAGE® SERIES

2011

THE NEW ENGLAND VILLAGE® SERIES was created in 1986 to capture the spirit of historic small town America in the 1800s. Imagine crashing waves against a rocky shoreline as a backdrop to picturesque lighthouses, nautical cottages, one-room schoolhouses, and seaside businesses. Though life is simple here, folks have plenty to do, from making candles to sleigh riding through a rolling countryside filled with authentic rural barns, farmhouses, and churches.

HEAP SNOW ON THE TOPS OF MOUNTAINS, add a cozy Alpine hamlet and many would agree you've created one of the most scenic places on earth. This is the setting for our hand-painted porcelain Alpine Village Series®, introduced in 1986. This charming European Village is home to many prosperous shops. Hilltop chalets and establishments bearing German names line the snow-laden roads and Villagers delight in winter activities that come with mountain living.
